Ideas for "Special Wants"

- Dragonhead Sketch by Kevin Siembieda. Kevin is happy to draw and sign one of his trademark "dragonhead" sketches (each one slightly different) on a separate, 8½ x 11 inch white board. $20+ value. Only people who request a dragon head sketch will be considered. He may also randomly include such a sketch as a surprise in some books as a fun surprise at no extra charge. Ho, ho, ho.
- No other original art. Much artwork is now done digitally. This means there is no hand-drawn art, even sketches, and when there are they usually have a high resale value. Thus, there is no original art for Surprise Packages, except Kevin Siembieda's dragon head sketch.
- One-of-a-kind book negatives resemble woodcut art and are very dynamic conversation pieces. Before digital printing, pages of a book were laid out by hand on a board, and each page was photographed. The plastic film negatives were then "ganged" on a massive sheet of Mylar, 16 pages per big sheet, and printing plates were made from the negatives. Each negative comes signed by Kevin Siembieda on a white board inside a plastic magazine bag. Looks great framed! Each neg is roughly 8½ x 11 inches). Sorry, you can not request a negative from a specific book. Right now we have negatives available from a few Rifts® titles. Value: Ranges from $2-$5 for a page of text $20-$50 if artwork appears on it.
